

Please let us know by noon on Friday, November 19, 2004, whether your clients will be dismissing the action. In the event they refuse to communicate a willingness to do so by that date, we will be immediately filing a motion for summary judgment. At that point, you can be assured defendants will be looking to your clients to respond in damages for their malicious prosecution of this action.

I look forward to hearing from you before noon on Friday.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Philip W. Bartenetti". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "P".

Philip W. Bartenetti

PWB:rl

cc: Mr. Elia Danho