

1 violations, but merely to say this is a document, this is
2 what it states, put it in the light of the public forum.

3 And I think we are entitled to that under the 4 standards of 663 and under, you know, we've cited case law
5 that lays out the facts required for a declaratory relief
6 action.

7 And if you will look at the defendant's
8 opposition to us, they in fact agree wherein they state
9 that -- and they actually believe that the Court has made 10 the ruling granting us the declaration even though the 11 Court -- you know, the Court -- I'm paraphrasing here from 12 item 2 on defendant's memorandum of points and authorities.

13 The Court made this ruling -- granting a
14 nonsuit -- even though the Court first ruled that plaintiff
15 had the right to request an accounting.

16 And that's all we asked for was that the Court 17 declare that we had a right to request an accounting as 18 members of the church.

19 So they do not disagree with us as to that 20 right, but I believe that counsel continues to confuse the 21 request for stating our right as opposed to granting us the 22 right. And I am not here before you today, your Honor, 23 asking that you order an accounting. And that's not what 24 we held a trial for.

25 THE COURT: No. I'm not going to.

26 I'll hear from the defense.

27 My tentative thinking is defense carries the 28 day. But what else do you want to put on the record, sir,
