

1 if anything?

2 MR. GOLDMAN: Nothing else, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to adopt the
4 language that's been put forth in the defendant's
5 memorandum of points and authorities. I need not clutter
6 up the record regurgitating everything they say in there,
7 just very basically the ruling was consistent.

8 We did say that they had a right to an
9 accounting, but after that you have to do something and 10 they didn't do anything at all in terms of what they proved 11 or showed that was done. The defense motion covers it very 12 accurately and very completely, and the Court adopts that 13 language.

14 And the judgment as previously been entered is 15 not going to be set aside. I'm not going to vacate the 16 judgment. And the judgment that's been signed and entered 17 in this matter is indeed the judgment.

18 And the Court feels very confident that even 19 though it's unusual for the Court to grant nonsuit, this is 20 a case that justified it and the judgment will stand.

21 Counsel for the defendant to send notice of the 22 court ruling.

23 MR. GOLDMAN: Thank you, your Honor.
